How to Secure Health.

Insurance any one will suffer from defective health on by impure blood which is the cause of all diseases. It is a strongly recommended that you take the best blood purifier ever discovered, Baker's Blood Purifier, which cures all diseases of the blood, such as Bileous complaints and diseases of the Liver, Kidneys, Stomach, Skin, etc.
Baker's Pain-Expeller cures pain in Muscles and Joints. It is a complete destroyer of WORMS.

Something New.

variety of Spring fabrics in all the latest styles. My importation of English, Scotch and French cashmeres includes all the choicest productions of the foreign mills, and my lines of domestic goods are full and varied.
No California or Oregon goods in stock.
Suits, new woolen goods, at $3 and upwards.
Fancy, new woolen goods, at $2 and upwards.
My coats do not "shrink" or fall off at the collar bag in the back, or stick out in front. Call at the oldest establishment in Reno, and no effort will be spared to please you. A complete assortment.

Notice to the Public.

The citizens of Reno are hereby notified that I will, with the assistance of my family carry on the business in the bakery known as "J. H. Galt's" bakery, as heretofore, and respectfully ask the patronage of all our old friends for the support of said family. Contrary reports notwithstanding, J. H. Galt will deliver bread to all customers with his well-known civility and dispatch.

Notice of Payment.

Office Nevada and Oregon Railroad.
Fifteen per cent. of the face value on all certificates of indebtedness issued up to July 15 will be paid on presentation of the same at this office in Reno. Geo. A. Kirtz, Secretary N. & O. Railroad.

John B. B. doubled in size the largest Japanese sale exhibition in the world. Shattuck & Fletcher export their printing ink in Japan, receive Japanese goods in return, pay for this advertisement with printing ink, and this is why it is so cheap and low priced. Localities in U. S. Wholesale and retail goods for every branch of country and retail trade.

COAST CLIPPINGS.

Los Angeles county has a dozen cheese factories.

The hotels at all the watering places are filled to overflowing.

A Spanish pair dated 1783 was found near Monterey recently.

The snag-boat Seizer is again at work in the upper Sacramento.

Diphtheria has again made its appearance at The Dalles, Oregon.

High winds are threshing out the farmers' wheat fields in some parts of the San Joaquin.

There are at least forty running and trailing horses stabled at Agricultural Park, Sacramento.

In San Francisco there are about 1,200 factories of all kinds, employing over 35,000 persons.

A grizzly lately killed and partly dressed by W. Young, a watchmaker, twelve miles east of Downey.

Herman Lathin, boat-puller of the Occident Packing Company, was drowned from the dock at Astoria Thursday.

Two small quartz mills are being erected for the Clover Patch mines, between Benton and Round Valley, Mono county, Cal.

The mining companies of Deadwood, D. T., have paid in dividends, during the first six months of 1882,
the sum of $535,500.

A. Y. Young, who killed his partner, Bovier, on Sunday evening, was exonerated by the Coroner's jury at Tombstone and set at liberty.

The financial exhibit of Lane county, Oregon, shows the expenditures during the past year to have been $31,815.58;
cash on hand over indebtedness $9,009.47.

Of the $546,000 received by the Union Consolidated in the last fiscal year, $300,000 came from three assessments. Every assessment was paid in full.

The Indian Queen Mining and Milling Company of Nevada has declared a dividend of five cents per share, or $6,350, payable in Boston on the 20th.

The Saratoga paper mills have been experimenting for the last six months with crude petroleum for fuel. They find it cheaper by fifty per cent. than wood at $4 per cord.

The body of L. B. Jones was found in the Willamette River, near Harrisburg, a few days since. Whether the drowning was accidental or suicide, could not be learned by the Coroner's jury.

The Bee says the water in the Sacramento river is better and clearer than usual, caused by the stoppage of some of the numerous hydraulic mines that have been polluting it for twenty or more years.

The Robert E. Lee mine, at Leadville, Col., settled with the Grand Smelting Company the other day for 185 tons and $10 pounds of ore, for which it received $53,088.56, or an average of $286.66.

D. Shankland of Watsonville, Cal., swallowed a dose of tincture of cantharides last Monday, supposing it to be Jamaica ginger. Vigorous remedies were at once resorted to, and there is a bare chance that the patient may recover. His sufferings were terrible.

The Yuba county, Cal., Supervisors Friday passed a resolution instructing the District Attorney to begin suits against hydraulic mining companies discharging debris into the Yuba river or tributaries. The Board appropriated $3,000 to defray expenses of the suits, and resolved to retain control of all suits brought under the said order.
The mining companies will be sued separately.

The foreman of Fowler, Bros. & Co.,
Canning Department, Chicago, Mr.
Stammkley, says he suffered with rheumatism for more than eight months. St. Jacobs Oil will cure me completely. It will cure anybody.

Peruvian Syrup cures dyspepsia, general debility, liver complaints, boils, humors, chronic diarrhea, nervous affections, female complaints, and all diseases originating in a bad state of the blood.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

Defunct, President of the Council, conferring with a committee on Naval credit declared if the powers indirectly interested in Egypt remained neutral in Egypt, France would leave England to act alone and would confine herself to the protection of the Suez Canal. This declaration seems due to a refusal of General Biliot, Minister of War, to undertake operation in Egypt unless he had a force of 40,000 men, which would require calling out a portion of the reserve and the Government has refused to sanction such action.

The lady peated at a writing-desk, holding a pen in her tiny fingers and gazing at the moon reflected in a lake, which we have seen on Japanese lacquer work and other art objects, is supposed to represent Murasaki Shikibu, the gifted author of "Gengi Monogatari," a romance which has been read in the Mikado's empire for nearly a thousand years.

The costliest coffins in this country are cheap affairs when contrasted with some to be found abroad. In the tomb in the Cathedral at Milan, the body of the Cardinal Borromeo is enclosed in a crystal casket, magnificent, with gold and silver trimmings, set with precious stones, at a cost of $800,000.

The Eureka Leader says: "Our friend, Jewett Adams, Lieutenant Governor and candidate for Governor of Nevada, is hobnobbing with a ferocity that surprises his most intimate friends, but he finds it hard work to persuade his compatriots that he did the right thing in State Prison matters."

"The Powning and Boardman factions will clash, as usual, at the Washoe Republican primaries,"—Carson Tribune.

It is thought that all factions in this county will think favorably of the GAZETTE'S proposition and unite on Powning for the State Senate and Boardman for Attorney-General.

A gentleman just from Austin informs us that the material for the Daily Morning Democrat has arrived there, and the first number will be issued on August 1st. The citizens there look with favor upon the project.

The Bee says General Stoneman has a mascot, but thinks it is about to desert him.

The Genoa Courier has entered volume 3. The editor says it is a success.

Press Dispatches to EVENING GAZETTE.

EASTERN.

The South American Controversy.

CHICAGO, July 24.

Jacob R. Shipperd has furnished for the use of the press an 84-page pamphlet entitled "The rejected testimony of Mr. Jacob R. Shipperd, refused by the Committee on Foreign Affairs of the House of Representatives, in session at Washington, May 17, '82." There has been a great demand for this testimony, which Shipperd determined to put in the hands of newspaper experts to do with it as they choose. Shipperd is particularly severe on Blaine, and declares his only wish in testifying voluntarily was to vindicate his foreign policy and to try to dissipate Shipperd's testimony. He maintains, however, that Blaine did not materially contradict, although he showed himself to be a foul-mouthed ruffian. He berates the committee for allowing him to be assailed by Blaine. Shipperd doubts Blaine's declaration that documents which were presented to President Garfield never came to his audience. This legally raises a strong presumption against Blaine. He points out what he calls numerous contradictions in Blaine's own testimony, and, in fact, devotes some 60 of the 80 pages in criticizing, attacking and denouncing Blaine in his methods of testimony. Some space is devoted to showing wherein various witnesses against Shipperd contradicted themselves, their record and the truth. Shipperd gives the names of those prominent public men on whom he relied.

De Lesseppe's Opinions.

NEW YORK, July 24.

A Herald's Alexandria dispatch says: I had an interview with De Lesseppe to-day. He admitted that he had changed his opinion as regards the bombardment, and now held that England was justified, and he considered it expedient that she should occupy Alexandria so long as would be necessary to thoroughly re-establish the authority of the Khedive. He was, however, most adverse to a British advance, and asserted that there is no occasion whatever for the employment of the Indian troops or the occupation of the country. He denounced this course as at once unjustifiable and most perilous, while he believed that Arabi's army, if left to itself would gradually dissolve. De Lesseppe made light of the danger to the Suez canal, and said in no case could Arabi do more mischief than could in a few hours be repaired.

Wonderful Escape.

CANTON JUNCTION, Mass., July 24.

Yesterday afternoon the lightning express from Boston, on the Providence road, was thrown on a side track by a misplaced switch. The train was going 55 miles per hour and the cars were turned partially on their sides and passengers thrown in heaps in the aisles, just as the flying train passed the station tilting the drawing-room cars and struck a baggage car on the other track, and this alone prevented the train going completely over and causing a frightful accident, as the cars were crowded. When the train partially righted, brakes were applied and the train stopped. No one was seriously injured.

The Beating Boom.

MILWAUKEE, July 24.

John Donaldson has issued the following challenge: "I hereby challenge any man in America, except John L. Sullivan and Tug Wilson, to fight me with or without gloves for $5,000 a side, fight to take place within 500 miles of Milwaukee and within six weeks from the date articles are signed." Mr. Donaldson is the man who stood before Sullivan's sledge hammer blows longer than any other man succeeded in doing and possesses the confidence of the sporting fraternity of Milwaukee who are ready with plenty money to back him.

No Canal Bill.

WASHINGTON, July 24.

In spite of the pressure that is being brought to bear on the Commissioners on Foreign Affairs to push the Nicaragua canal bill it is not probable any attempt will be made by those having the bill in charge to bring it up this session. The Pacific Coast Representatives in the House are urging the calling-up of the measure at as early a date as possible, but the committee is said to be determined that it shall go over till next session.

St. Julien Sore.

CHICAGO, July 24.

Orrin A. Hickocks says the celebrated trotter, St. Julien, has a bad leg and is in the care of a veterinary surgeon. It was by the latter's advice he was not started in the race with Trinket last Thursday. The surgeon expresses a belief that with a let up from work he will come around all right in a short time. There is little hope, however, that he will be able to appear in the great trotting circuit.

Hard Workers.

WASHINGTON, July 24.

The Senate will continue the consideration of the Internal Revenue bill to-day. If the Senators choose to hold night sessions and work industriously this bill can be passed by Tuesday evening. If, on the contrary, the lazy indifference that is a usual characteristic of the Senate work prevails, it will not be disposed of until the end of the week.

A Notable Funeral.

BORDERTOWN, N. J., July 24.

The funeral of Miss Fannie Parnell this morning was largely attended by residents of this city and vicinity. Trains from New York and Philadelphia brought members from the different Land League organizations. A harp at the head of the casket bore the following inscription: "Cede Deo." A white satin pillow, with a harp at the head, had on it a quotation from her last poem, "The Utterances of an Irish Heart." The services were very impressive.

Jones' Opinion.

NEW YORK, July 24.

Senator Jones, of Nevada, being interviewed said he believed California would go Republican this Fall, and that M. M. Steeple would be the Republican candidate for Governor against Stoenman. The Senator thinks the entire State ticket, a majority of the Congressional delegation and perhaps a majority of the Legislature will be Republican. The Chinese question in his opinion, will not affect the Republican party of California, because the political battle cannot be fought on reminiscences.

Americans Saved.

WASHINGTON, July 24.

The acting Consul-General of the United States in Egypt telegraphs Secretary Frelinghuysen from Alexandria as follows: "I remained at Cairo up to the last moment. Our records and my personal effects are lost. All American citizens were saved. General Stone's family insisted on remaining at Cairo and their destiny is unknown. Communication is now interrupted."

Ready For Fight.

CHICAGO, June 24.

Richard K. Fox, Tug Wilson's backer, writes: "In regard to matching Tug Wilson to fight Sullivan for the championship of the world, my money is ready providing Madden will agree that the fight shall take place where both men will have fair play."

FOREIGN.

Egyptian Notes.

ALEXANDRIA, July 23.

After the destruction of the forts by the English fleet, the Khedive sent for Arabi Pasha and asked him for a report, which Arabi refused. Dervish Pasha expressed surprise at Arabi's refusal, after having sworn obedience to the Khedive. Angry words ensued between Dervish and Arabi, the former reproaching the latter for not having followed his advice to dismuzzle the forts. While the Palace was surrounded by troops the Khedive called for a rifle and Dervish Pasha also prepared to defend himself.

After the withdrawal of the soldiers Dervish Pasha advised flight to Suez, but the Khedive refused to leave. Yesterday the Bittern cruised off Rosetta to reconnoitre, but did not approach within firing distance. The fort has 15 guns mounted. On the approach of the Bittern the men stood to the guns, but did not fire. At Aboukir there was a large number of guns and men. A flag of truce was flying, but no English troops were landed to spike the guns.

The country is drifting into fearful anarchy. Atrocities equal to any ever perpetrated in Bulgaria are committed with impunity. Some Germans at Tuckh, who were sheltered by the station-master until the train was ready to start, were caught entering the trains, their heads held over a carriage door and their throats cut.

Arabi's Letter to Gladstone.

LONDON, July 24.

Arabi Pasha wrote the following letter to Gladstone a few days before the bombardment, but Gladstone did not receive it until after the bombardment. The Koran commands us to resist if war is waged against us. Hence England may rest assured that at the first gun she fires Egypt will absolve Egyptians from the treaty, the control will cease, property of Europeans will be confiscated, canals destroyed and Iohad be preached in Syria, Arabia and India. The first blow with which England strikes Egypt will cause blood to flow through Asia and Africa. The responsibility for which will be on the head of England. Egypt is still ready to be fast friends with England and keep her road to India, but she must keep within the limits of her jurisdiction. Finally England may rest assured we are determined to die for our country.

Troops For the Front.

LONDON, July 24.

Infantry for Egypt will be embarked the 4th of August and sail direct for Alexandria.

The Irrepressible Irishman.

LONDON, July 24.

John Dillon speaking at Mallow said if sixty honest members were returned to Parliament to support Parnell they would render the repression of the crime bill inoperative. For every man arrested under the bill they would waste two days in the House of Commons. When they were enabled to understand the workings of the land corporations they would organize such machinery as to defeat it.

The Fight Over.

ALEXANDRIA, July 24.

The rifles and mounted infantry occupied Ramleh early this morning. They stationed one Gatling and one field gun at the bridge over the canal. The enemy's cavalry appeared and galloped boldly along the railway at 300 yards range, but fled upon a volley being fired. After a short time they reappeared with two guns, with which they opened fire ineffectually upon the British, who took to cover. By 9 o'clock the firing had ceased, but the enemy is expected to reappear with reinforcements.

More Fighting.

ALEXANDRIA, July 24.

The Sixteenth Regiment march to occupy Ramleh this morning. A skirmish is proceeding. No particulars. The Thirty-fifth infantry has been ordered to support the Fifth. The bulk of Arabi Pasha's infantry is reported to be concentrated at Damietta, the troops at Kaffi Eldwar being chiefly infantry and cavalry. The inspector of the Candastal survey has arrived from the interior. He reports the total force of the rebels at nearly 100,000. He says a volunteer cavalry regiment is forming to attack Alexandria.

The War For Water.

ALEXANDRIA, July 24.

Arabi Pasha was on Saturday fired on with a field gun at the pumping station of Ramleh. It is a race between the falling of the canal and the dauntless energy of the English to get water enough to tide over another month. The Nile inundation will probably sweep away Arabi's dyke, or rush around it, and all will be well.

An Exaggerated Report.

LONDON, July 23.

A correspondent of the Times at Alexandria, writes that he is convinced the report of the number of persons massacred at the time of the bombardment are grossly exaggerated.

The British have appointed Achmet Rifat Governor of Alexandria. His duties will be mainly nominal, but his use as a figure head will enable the authority to be exercised without wounding native susceptibility.

Declared a Rebel.

ALEXANDRIA, July 24.

The Khedive has signed a decree dismissing Arabi Pasha and declaring him a rebel. He will issue a general order forbidding the Egyptian army to obey orders from Arabi Pasha, and forbidding the people to pay him taxes.

All Pulling Together.

LONDON, July 24.

Parnell and other Home Rule Members of Parliament have formed a committee to organize a public movement in Ireland to counteract the operations of the land corporation. Davitt has consented to co-operate in the scheme.

Arabi's Position.

ALEXANDRIA, July 24.

Arabi Pasha occupies an extended line from Meroutis to Aboukir. His force is estimated at 7,000. The first skirmish lasted an hour. One or two English were hit and several Egyptians were seen to fall. Arabi is against advancing.

Looks Like a Long War.

SIMLA, July 24.

The Indian Government replying to a telegram from England, stated the contingent for the Egyptian campaign could be embarked in three weeks.

WESTERN.

FRESNO, Cal., July 24.

WILL THEY GET IT?

The Circus Sues this County for Taxes Paid.

General Kittrell has brought suit to recover the $275 paid by John Robinson's Circus to Assessor Longley in the shape of personal property taxes on his assessment of $10,000 on the show. At the time it was assessed acting District Attorney H. B. Cossitt advised the Assessor that he could not collect it. The company showed a receipt from the officers in Cincinnati, Ohio, for the personal property for the year 1882. It has been held that as circuses stop in this State to do business they should be taxed, and the last one that was here was assessed at $10,000 and it was paid. The Virginia Chronicle says the management was bled at every turn up there. It says: "The manner in which this company has been squeezed in this State is not such as to encourage other shows to come here. In Reno they were obliged to pay $275 tax on personal property in transit, besides paying the regular license and other expenses. Here the Virginia and Gold Hill Water Company charged them $30 for one day's water for the animals, and the Storey county authorities compelled them to have six extra policemen, charging the company $5 for each. This was in addition to the regular county and city license, amounting to $45, and also a license some time ago for posting bills. It looks as if the powers that be were bound to get every drop of blood from the show that the law will possibly allow. No wonder Mr. Piper complains of canceled engagements on the part of theatrical agents if the thumb-screws are to be pressed in this shameful manner."

The Enterprise thinks they squealed more than was warranted. It says: "The circus people yesterday asserted that the Storey county authorities compelled them to have six extra policemen, charging the company $5 for each. There would seem to be some mistake about this, as the county authorities say they sent no such police to the grounds, nor did they give any one authority to put on extra policemen in any part of the city. The circus have probably not been so badly treated as they try to make it appear. We understand that they received a hint at Reno that it would be much cheaper for them to pay their personal property tax in that town than wait till they arrived here."

The Elko Independent says: "On entering Nevada the circus entered Elko county, which was entitled to tax, were any due. Our Assessor applied to the agent of the show for personal property tax, and if we remember aright—was furnished with satisfactory evidence that the property had been regularly assessed, and the tax paid before it reached this State." It may be well to have this matter settled by the courts.

The Coming Fair.

The Susanville Advocate says: The enterprising people of Reno are again moving the matter of the next annual State fair to be held in that place. In many respects the people of Honey Lake valley are more generally interested in and benefited by the Reno fairs than those of their own Agricultural District. And a better and speedier means of communication will materially strengthen this interest and benefit. We are glad to see the earnestness with which the Renolites are working together in this matter, and if the dates are set in September, as they certainly should be, we incline to the belief that a grand success will be recorded.

N. & O. Items.

Two miles of track iron arrived this morning and is being sent to the front, which is now 23 miles from Reno.

Arguments were made this morning before Judge King on the demurrer in the case of J. H. Parker and others vs. Nevada & Oregon Railroad. It is the opinion of our most eminent legal minds that the demurrer will be sustained and what is known as the Parker lien is not worth the paper it is written on, and must be dismissed.

The Deepest Hole.

The deepest mine in the world, according to Prof. Hofer, of the Academic Imperiale des Mines, is the Pribram silver mine in Bohemia. The lowest depth is nearly 3,300 feet below the surface. At this depth the temperature of the rocks is only 75.90° F., and the temperature of the mine, according to the same authority, is 76.3° F., so that up to the present only natural ventilation has been required.

Entertainment.

Miss C. E. Hardy, a graduate of the Boston School of Oratory, who has been for several months past teaching articulation in the deaf and dumb asylum at Berkeley, will give elocutionary readings at the Methodist Church this evening. The proceeds of the entertainment will be shared with the Woman's Christian Temperance Union. Admission 25 cents.

For Home Benefit.

Pete Evans is doing his choicest rustling for the State Fair. He says it is to be managed in the interest of the country east of the mountains especially. Eastern California, southern Oregon and all of Nevada will have a chance to show all they have that is fast or good. Whatever comes from other countries will be considered as auxiliaries.

MISTAKEN IDENTITY.

A Prominent San Franciscan Gets Confused as to Who He Is.

The Nevada papers have had notices for a few days past of the presence in their different towns of the well known and popular book binder and hotel register man of San Francisco, Dan Hicks. Mr. Hicks is one of the jolliest men on the coast, and always has lots of fun in his travels, but on first acquaintance is rather dignified and reserved. At the hotel he was treated with marked respect by the colored waiters, who were evidently mystified a little as to the character of their guest. Yesterday morning they determined to solve their doubts and, after holding a consultation in the corner of the room, deputed the youngest of their number to put a leading question to him. The young man approached and said, "Excuse me, sir, but will you please tell me what time service begins?" Mr. H. gravely answered, "At 11 o'clock." The next cloth he wears and the steaks acquired by good keeping had led to the belief that he was a minister.

At Virginia City he went into a shop to get a shave and the barber called him Governor, and began to tell about mining with him in Butte county years ago. He took him for Governor Perkins. On Saturday a GAZETTE reporter hitched up and drove down to the Asylum with Mr. Hicks and one or two others. One of the patients seemed to recognize Mr. H. instantly, and asked him where he had been and why he didn't come up with the rest. He said he missed him as soon as the train left Stockton and had been wondering where he was. Mr. Hicks begins to wonder now if his wife will know him when he gets home.

Lost Dog Found.

Some one connected with the circus took a fancy to a black and white greyhound belonging to Mr. White, a tailor in the employ of Jacobs, and kidnapped the dog. While the circus train was here yesterday White found his slender racer concealed in a circus stock car. He at once hunted up the train master and had his dog liberated. No one connected with the company would acknowledge having had anything to do with the thieving.

He Nearly Went.

The foreman at Mary Wall's ranch called for Dr. Dawson at the Asylum this morning in a big hurry, to be relieved of a dose of poison he had taken with his whisky. The doctor gave him a couple of gallons of warm water and tickled his palate with a feather until he threw up everything but his immortal soul. He had a very close call. Someone had put strychnine in his bottle.

The Lake House.

Under the management of H. L. W. Knox, this house is becoming one of the favorite hotels in the city. Its situation makes it a desirable house to guests who wish to be quiet. The hotel bus connects with all trains coming and going. The tables are excellent, everything is nicely prepared and a dinner is eaten with as much relish as if cooked in some New England mother's kitchen. Give the Lake House a call.

Nature's Own True Laxative.

As agreeable to the taste as the fruit from which it is made, prompt and painless in its action on the liver and bowels, the great remedy Syrup of Figs is selling rapidly and giving satisfaction to all. Children cry for it on account of its pleasant taste, and grown people are beginning to use it exclusively, as it leaves them feeling better than any other remedy. For sale by R. E. Queen.

Lost Man Department.

Hannah Sheridan, of Cambridge, Ohio, has lost her son William. She has not heard from him for two years, and thinks he must be in this country. How it is that William has kept out of politics and has neglected to force himself into some Government position under the recommendation of being an "Ohio boy" is quite wonderful. Hannah cannot account for it.

Deserted, and in Carson.

On Thursday afternoon, says the Carson Appeal, a strange woman, the mother of four children, was deserted by her husband in this city. The heartless wretch took two of the children and left for parts unknown, leaving his wife here with very scanty means. The poor woman telegraphed to different parts for information of her delinquent spouse, but met with no success.

Elko Quiet.

Now that Robinson's great moral menagerie and compilation of circus has visited Elko, the town is again quiet and the people are contented. The Independent has resumed publication and all is well.

Getting Frequent.

The San Francisco Call says a slight shock of earthquake was felt in that city about ten minutes past 11 o'clock Saturday morning.

Cause for Sorrow.

The Messenger says this week has been one of sorrow for Battle Mountain. The sad accident and death of Ira Blossom cast a shadow over the whole community.

NO. 30 COMMERCIAL ROW.....JULY 24.....RENO, NEVADA

BOUND TO GROW.

How the Box Business is Extending—New Mills and New Methods. The GAZETTE recently called attention to the vast prospects of the box business on this coast, and advised the use of better methods for saving waste of material. The Republican thus speaks of experiments in this direction:

New factories and mills seem to be springing up in this vicinity this year in rapid succession, and they all give promise of success, and will consequently add to the permanence and prosperity of the town. It is only a few weeks since that Messrs. McLellan & Lowden started on the new field of manufacturing boxes by a new method, and many were the predictions by the old school that they could not manufacture boxes on a paying basis by the new method proposed, to wit: the cutting and hauling of rough blocks, in lieu of cutting up manufactured lumber as heretofore adopted. Mr. Andrew Miller has concluded to start another box factory on the same plan adopted by the enterprising young men alluded to. Miller is the proprietor of the property now known as Miller's shingle mill, which is situated on the Hot Springs road about three miles from town. It is conveniently situated near a handy and almost inexhaustible supply of timber, and with a good supply of water near by, besides being easily accessible to town. The property was formerly owned by Dave Smith. Since engaging in the shingle business, Miller has done a lucrative business, and has built up a large trade. He has received so much encouragement that he has concluded to branch out into an entirely new business and manufacture boxes, which will be done in connection with the making of shingles. The shingle machine is run by steam power, but it is thought the engine has power enough to run the box machinery in connection with the shingle mill. A large shed will be built near the present factory, in which will be kept a large supply of blocks for making boxes. These will be corded up so that the shed will be filled up for winter. When the deep snow comes, the factory will still be kept running. It will run all winter.

A Splendid Stock. S. M. Jamison & Co. carry a magnificent stock of dry and fancy goods and are selling it at prices never before offered in this market. The firm have taken great care and exercised excellent judgment in selecting their stock. Everything on their shelves is new and of the latest patterns. Read their new advertisement on this page and give them a call.

Restime To-Morrow. J. E. Calderwood and W. A. Morrison arrived here yesterday morning after restocking the stage line to Cedarville. Mr. Calderwood has taken a sub contract from Mrs. Campbauer, and to-morrow a stage will start from here and another from Susanville. A stage running from Alturas across to Bidwell will connect at Cedarville with the Reno line.

Serious Accident. A very serious, if not fatal accident, happened to H. B. Tunison last Tuesday, at the ranch of his brother A. L. Tunison, on Willow Creek. The Susanville Advocate says: H. B. was assisting his brother in building a derrick for unloading hay, and in over-reaching he strained himself so much as to cause the breakage of an old rupture that has troubled him for years.
